The Creator
Mayor — 27/50

stabilizer
Secondary — 26/50

All 8 roles

Your primary role: Creator

Generate ideas, innovate, think unconventionally. The source of new solutions.

Biblical model:

Bezalel—filled with the Spirit for creativity (Exodus 31:1-5).

Strengths:

Innovation, creative solutions, divergent thinking, adaptability

Blind spots:

May lack follow-through, bored with routine, too many ideas at once

Suitable departments:

Creative worship, design, communication, events, media

May lack follow-through, bored with routine, too many ideas at once

Suitable departments:

Creative worship, design, communication, events, media

Complemented by:

The Executor, the Stabilizer

Your secondary role: The Stabilizer

Maintains consistency, brings calm, supports in the long term. Anchors the team.

Biblical model:

Timothy — faithful, constant, reliable in the long run.

Strengths:

Constancy, loyalty, calm, long-term support

Suitable departments:

Administration, pastoral support, maintenance, archive, continuity

Your combination: Creator + Stabilizer

The combination of the  Creator with the  Stabilizer means you bring both innovation and consistency. Look for teams where you can exercise both roles.

Complementary roles to look for in the team:

For a balanced team, look for colleagues who excel as: The Executor, The Stabilizer.

Team principles

"An effective team includes people with different temperaments, different gifts, different experiences, different abilities."

"No one can serve effectively completely alone. We need each other." — cf. 1 Corinthians 12

 Discuss the results with your team leader. Knowing everyone's roles dramatically improves collaboration.
